

The government is expected to table in the National Assembly the Microfinance Regulatory Bill of 2018 under a certificate of urgency in a bid to address rural financial services and needs for an inclusive economy.